

TUESDAY 20 APRIL

The first minister says: "We are very hopeful of seeing sustained progress in the weeks and months ahead."

She turns her focus on the changes coming on Monday 26 April.

The Scottish government's route map says that from 26 April the following can happen:

- up to six people from two households can socialise indoors in a public place such as a café or restaurant
- unrestricted travel within Scotland, England and Wales (subject to local restrictions)
- all shops, stores and close contact services like nail bars can open
- hospitality venues like cafes, pubs and restaurants can open until 20:00 indoors, but without alcohol
- alcohol can be served outdoors under local licensing restrictions
- tourist accommodation to reopen (self-catering accommodation restricted in line with rules on indoor gathering)
- funerals and weddings including receptions can take place with up to 50 people (alcohol permitted)
- gyms and swimming pools can reopen for individual exercise
- indoor attractions and public buildings such as galleries, museums and libraries can open

All of Scotland on level 4 will move to level 3 on 26 April.

All of Scotland will move to level 2 on 17 May.

The intention is to move to level 1 on 7 June then return to "normality" in July.

Level 3 – Rules

Meeting others indoors (socialising)

You should not meet anyone who is not in your household indoors in your home or in their home. You can meet one other household indoors in a public place such as a café or restaurant. The maximum number of people who can meet indoors in a public (not a home) place is 6 which can be from up to 2 separate households.
