DORNOCH WHISKY FESTIVAL

THE EXPERIENCE

Following on the success of the inaugural event in 2015, the local distilleries of Glenmorangie, Balblair, The Dalmore, Glen Ord, Clynelish and Old Pulteney have again teamed up with Dornoch venues to provide an exciting menu of whisky based activities for an autumn weekend break.

We are pleased to be joined by Charles Maclean a well known whisky writer and taster, who starred in the film 'The Angel's Share' based in the local Balblair Distillery. A unique opening event is planned with Charles leading a welcome tasting prior to the viewing of 'The Angel's Share' in Balblair! He will also be hosting a dinner at Links House and taking a master class in the new Carnegie Whisky Cellars, housed in the former Dornoch Courthouse.

Tickets to the events can be booked on-line at www.dornochwhiskyfestival.com.

To help you plan your weekend there are special accommodation offers available, please see www.visitdornoch.com for more details.
