GLEN ORD DISTILLERY

Muir Of Ord, Ross-shire. IV6 7UJ

from Dornoch: 60 mins (42 miles)

Situated on the edge of the Black Isle, one hour south of Dornoch, Glen Ord continues to malt its own barley and to use the long fermentation and slow distillation methods followed there for generations.

The soil, the barley, the sea air and the marvellously soft water that imparts Glen Ord Single Malt Whisky with has earned it the name the "Richer Malt".

Take a tour of the distillery and watch the distillers at work creating a magical malt whisky which is sweet, malty and dry on the palate.

Tours, Tastings and a Distillery Shop available all year.

Please contact Glen Ord for more details or to book a tour (see the website for opening times.)

GLENMORANGIE DISTILLERY

Tain, Ross-shire. IV19 1PZ from Dornoch: 12 minutes (8 miles)

The nearest whisky distillery to Dornoch is the world famous Glenmorangie, located on the shores of the Dornoch Firth just West of Tain.

It is from this peaceful setting and this most beautiful of natural environments, that the Glenmorangie whiskies are created. Alongside its classic 'Original 10 year old', Glenmorangie also produce a range of other whiskies including the limited edition 'Dornoch'.

The Glenmorangie stills are the tallest in Scotland, which means that only the very lightest and purest vapours make it to the top, giving a smoother, more elegant whisky.

There are 3 different tours available, all of which include tastings. Tours and Distillery Shop available all year (Tours by appointment only from November to March)

Please contact Glenmorangie for more details or to book a tour (see the website for opening times).
